

Abigail McKenley was born in Manhattan, New York and raised on the beautiful island of Jamaica where her parents grow the world renowned Blue Mountain Coffee. After graduating from the Convent of Mercy Academy High School, she returned to the United States to attend the University of Maryland.

Always a voracious reader, her passion gave way to writing when she found herself continuing stories in her head long after the book had ended.

A member of the Romance Writers Association of America, Abigail lives in a suburb of Orlando with her husband and their incredible son.

The CHOSEN One

Worldly and sophisticated, Rachel Penniston thought she had seen it all. That is, until she entered 'The Palace' a club where a sign warns visitors that they must be 'comfortable with nudity or open sexuality.'

When Clinton Scheff arrived at 'The Palace', the last thing he expected to do was find the woman of his dreams.

Rachel is determined to put their encounter behind her. Achieving success has been an uphill struggle, besides should anyone find out, both their jobs and their reputations would be in jeopardy.

Suddenly the calm of their everyday existence is shattered and Rachel and Clint find themselves in a fight to save not only their careers, but their lives.

What they didn't know is, before that night at 'The Palace', Rachel had already been chosen.

"When men began to increase in number on the earth and daughters were born to them the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful and they married any of them they chose."
